

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Dearest family & friends,

We hope you and your family are enjoying all of God's goodness during this busy time of year. As we reflect on the year we are delighted when we think of you, our partnership together, and all God has done in Haiti and in each of us. We are thankful for you and pray you, too find yourself in awe of who He is and all He has done. With anticipation we trust Him to do exceedingly more next year. If you would like to partner with the work God is doing through THM, please join us! Here is an update on our little family as they are growing up quick!

Zac, 18 is in his final year of high school. Its been a real blast, too; for him and for us! When he started HS he immediately made the swim team then moved on to water polo; and we all thought he would be on the basketball team, ha! God sure had a different plan. Together, we have watched God's plan unfold throughout Zac's high school career. Zac finished his swim season with a first team All Conference award and the MVP award. We are so proud of Zac! Over the past 16 months we have visited many colleges with both swimming and polo teams. Zac's heart desires to continue competitive sports and God is opening scholarship doors for him. Please pray with us for this transition. Thank you.

Bree, 16 will be getting her drivers license in January, good stuff, but one of her greatest joys is to hang-out with her big brother. After retiring from soccer she tried out for Zac's swim team so they could enjoy his last year of HS together. She finished her season alongside Zac on varsity... so much FUN! Today, Zac is teaching Bree water polo and she is planning to tryout for the HS team. It's such a treat seeing them together, enjoying the same friendships, and cheering for each other.

Joshua Joshua Joshua ... Will be 14 in, oh, no!... 34 days... yes, it's the count-down because momma is holding on to her bear-cub and knows how quickly these teen years fly. Joshua is the smile that brightens every room, every face, the hallways at his school, the car-line, and the B-Ball court... he has a lot of friends and is always invited to everyone's birthday party. There is only one Joshua and he is amazing! He chose his picture above :-)

Merry Christmas & Joyous New Year!
