

THE CARSON COLLECTIVE

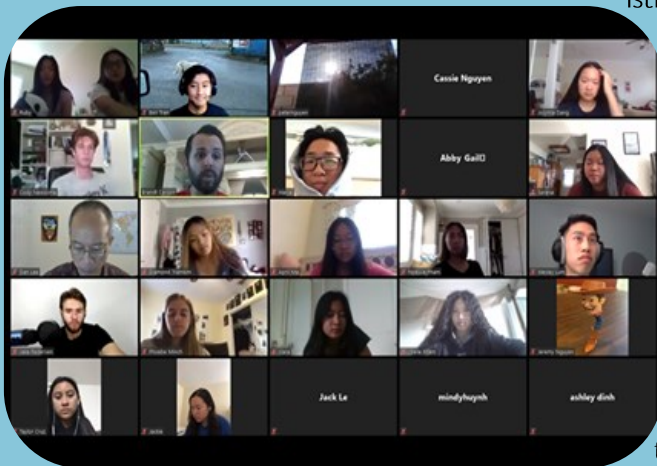

A Ministry Update from the Month of April

Ministry in a Pandemic: Our “new” Normal

During the week of March 9th, the last 4 school days before school was canceled, we held evangelistic rallies at eight of our schools – sharing the Gospel with approximately 1,600 students! Out of those, we were able to connect with 1,300 personally, follow up with regarding the message, and invite them to various virtual events! Because we can no longer meet in person, ministry is now conducted through an online communication platform called “Discord”. Discord enables our students to text, call, and video each other! We host bible studies, virtual workouts, movie nights, and game nights. We have had several successful outreach events where we have shared the Gospel with new students!

Though ministry has looked different due to physical distancing, we are still called to fulfill the Great Commission and are honored to be used by God in this season. We are excited to share with you one story of how God is moving in the lives our students in the midst of COVID-19

Prayer Request

- Pray for us as we adjust to having Mike and Erica move in with us for a few months!
- Pray for motivation for our students. Many are very sad and frustrated to not see their friends, or graduate.

Virtual Easter Sunday

On Good Friday, we streamed our church service and the movie, “The Passion of the Christ” through our web-based Cru server. David Guerrero, a student who surrendered his life to Jesus at Fastbreak, decided that he wanted his parents to watch with him so that they might know Jesus. He searched online and found “The Jesus Film,” produced by Cru. And it was in his parents’ language: Spanish!

On Easter Sunday, David sat and talked through the movie with his parents, carefully explaining all the truths that he had learned at Cru. After passionately explaining why Jesus had to die, He asked his parents if they wanted to pray the prayer at the end of the film; and by God’s grace they did! After only knowing Jesus for three months, David is already seeing the Gospel go forth to his own family!

Please continue to be in prayer for him, and that he can connect his parents to a local church. Pray also that his nine siblings would come to know Jesus as well. One of David’s first prayers after coming to faith at Fastbreak in January, was that his family would also come to know Jesus!

Cayden is now walking and running on his own!
