Seriously? You want me to do what on my Spring Break?

This is how I think many students respond when they first hear of our Spring Break mission trip. We head to a very popular spring break destination and we share our faith on the beach with the spring breakers there. Many of our students know the place well because a year or two before they were the ones partying! This year 31 students said yes to going. It was our biggest mission trip yet from San Antonio. On the right, you can read what happened and what the students said. →

One of the exciting things for me was that Kendall was on the trip. Last year Kendall committed his life to Christ on the beach with me. This year he said, "I was surprised because the new students were coming up to me asking for guidance." What a difference a year makes! He also brought a friend, Tim, along this year. Tim was in the same place that Kendall had been. Tim and I had a long late night conversation and he made a commitment to Christ as well. I'm praying that the same amazing change will happen in Tim's life and that next year he'll be leading like Kendall was this year. Please pray for Tim as he follows Jesus. Pray for those who made decisions for Jesus on the beach. And pray that our students would continue to share their faith passionately back home!

Quotes: When asked what they hoped for from the mission trip one student replied: "I'd like them to experience Jesus in the way that I've been privileged to experience him." -Chris

On the last day of the trip this is what the students said:

"I had never done anything like this and I was nervous. And I've always known the power of prayer but I really saw it this week." -Emely

"I'm like a hermit crab living in a plastic bottle shell when God has provided a beautiful real shell for me. I had known about it but until this weekend I hadn't moved into it." -Michael

Stats: And this is what the Lord did through the students on this trip: An average of 4 spiritual conversations per person—169 total. Out of those conversations 109 people heard a gospel presentation—and 32 indicated decisions for Jesus! Praise the Lord.
