Loquat Pie

It's loquat season again! Loquats are small yellow fruit that grow in abundance around here, when the year is right! And this year seems to be right....because our loquat trees are heavy-laden with these juicy fruits this season! Last week, we made loquat jam with our bounty (but forgot to take pictures!) and this week we made loquat pie.

Lyndsey and her friend Emily collecting the fruit from the tree.
