Have A MERRY Christmas

Jesus

*He came not to a throne,
but to a manger.*

*He lived not as a King,
but as a Servant.*

*He chose not a Kingdom,
but a Cross.*

*He gave not just a little,
but everything, His life.*

*Therefore God exalted Him
To the place of highest praises
And He gave Him a name
Above every name
That at the name of Jesus,
Son of God,
Every knee will bow
in worship of the King!*

✕A Child is Born✕

“For to us a child is born, to us a Son is given, and the government will be on His shoulders. And He will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.” Isaiah 9:6

HAPPY HOLLIDAYS!

Jesus Loves the Little Ones

Open Door Haiti's orphanage is the home to 50 precious children. God miraculously provided after the tragic earthquake in 2010, with $100,000 being raised in 100 days to build a home for the hopeless and helpless. These are "our kids," but more than that, they belong to one who has promised to be a Father to the fatherless. For as little as $25 a month, friends from across the US are helping to provide hope and love for these amazing children. And imagine this... you can join me on a trip to Haiti and hug the precious child you're sponsoring!

God is Faithful, God is Good!

January: Sonlife held its third annual Disciple-Making Conference in Orlando. Jennifer was again able to help Doug with the conference, leading a team of volunteers that fed the 300 ministry leaders that had come from 32 states and 9 countries.

February: After the Sonlife Conference, Jennifer began working full-time again as a dental hygienist.

March: While Maggie was in the midst of track season, and Analise was performing in dance, Marisa took a Spring Break road trip to the Carolinas and Washington DC..

April: Doug and Jennifer traveled to New York to see Jaclyn perform in her Freshman Theatre Showcase.

Doug traveled to India and Pakistan to preach the gospel to Muslims and Hindus and train leaders in disciple-making using Sonlife's 4 Chair Discippling material.

May: Jaclyn brought her roommate home with her to see Florida for the first time, and her beloved Toyota Prius broke down beyond repair two hours from home. That same night, Doug's dad went into the hospital with organ failure from his long term illness. He was released home to hospice care, and went home to be with the Lord on May 24th. We celebrated His life with a memorial on Memorial Day.

June: While Doug traveled back to Haiti with a mission team to train at the School Of Youth Ministry, Analise began working at both TJ Max and McDonalds.

July: Doug and Jennifer got away for a weekend in Boston, and then Washington DC, for an early 26th wedding anniversary celebration. Jennifer took Mary-Faith away for a weekend to the mountains of Georgia.

August: Emma and Mary-Faith traveled with Doug to Washington DC for Lead The Cause, a student evangelism conference. Doug headed to the mountains of Oregon for Sonlife's Staff Leadership Retreat..

September: Back to school... Marisa is now a senior at Palm Beach Atlantic, Jaclyn is a sophomore at Long Island University, Emma and Analise are seniors in high school, Mary-Faith is a sophomore in high school, and Maggie is in eighth grade.

October: While at his alma mater, Liberty University, for a Pastor's Conference, Jennifer brought Emma up to join Doug for a visit of the campus. Emma found out her National Merit Scholar honor qualifies her for a full-tuition scholarship!

November: Jennifer took Emma to New York for her 18th birthday, where she saw her sister perform at her college, and then caught a couple of fun Broadway shows.

December: Marisa did the design and layout for Doug's new book, the 40 Days of Disciple-Making Journal.

Serving Christ together, Doug & Jennifer
