COMPASSION - EVANGELISM - DISCIPLESHIP - PRAYER

Meet Kaitlyn! She has a passion for Christ and a heart to take Him to the ends of the earth! She has joined our staff as our Event Planner and Volunteer Coordinator!

From the living and active Word of God...

Before the Israelites entered into the promise land the Lord commanded them to wipe clean all of the people living inside the boundaries. Then the Lord said, "But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land, those you allow to remain will become barbs in your eyes and thorns in your sides." Numbers 33:55 This image range true my own heart. The inhabitants, their idols and their holy places were wicked and because the Lord dwelled among the Israelites the enemy could not be present. Now the tabernacle resides in our hearts and if His dwelling place is not cleared, we can be certain that battles will continue to ensue.

As I read these words, I was reminded of the battles that I seem to face over and over. Some days I feel just like the Israelites who continually fell in to cycles of disobedience. But If I desire to wipe out the enemy within my heart, I must heed the same knowledge given to the Israelites: the Lord gives us all that we have and He hands over our enemies. Our duty is love and obedience. The Lord desire for us to love Him and obey Him and He graciously promises to be our defender and provider. For too long I have battled, when the Lord was begging me to obey so that He may battle on my behalf. So here is to a new season of clearing out all of the unwelcomed inhabitants in my heart and I anticipate the Lord's power showing up!

EXPANSION PROJECT

We seem to be bursting at the seams in every respect around here. The sweet and gracious hand of the Lord continues to stir and bless our small steps of faith. We have added staff and are anticipating at least 3 others to join us before the end of 2013! With the added staff and the growing missiology training school, we are out of room and beginning an expansion project that will provide a training center and more office space. The Lord has given us abundant vision and we are excited as he continues to provide for our physical needs.

Just like the beginning of a new school year, we are starting the beginning of a new training season. What a joy to see the classroom begin to fill with eager students and future missionaries. We kicked off our first training sequence this last week for our fall outreach to the deaf of Botswana. We had some new faces and some "repeat offenders" as I like to call them! Together in the coming months, we will search the scriptures listening to God's heart for the nations. We ask the Lord to slowly shave off our rough edges so that the outreach may look more like Christ and follow the steps He has determined for us.

There will be more first days to come as we prepare for outreaches to Southeast Asia and national cross cultural projects. I am excited to have our classroom seats full again with students investing in the Gospel and missiology, but most importantly I am excited to see God transform hearts in this classroom and to the farthest reaches of His creation. Please join me in praying for our students and the people we will meet along these exciting journeys.

Sweet Blessings...

Throughout all of the travel, change, and craziness of this season of ministry, these two beautiful and silly roommates have been continual encouragement and joy!

School to the Nations is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization committed to taking the good news of Jesus Christ to some of the most remote countries and peoples that have never heard the name of Jesus. All donations to this ministry are tax deductible.
