

Through the Lord's gracious provision I have been blessed to invest in a home. My roommates and I pray this house would be a place of ministry and rest!

From my heart...

"The Lord brings death and makes alive; he brings down to the grave and raises up. The Lord sends poverty and wealth; he humbles and he exalts." 1 Samuel 2:6-7

This is Hannah's prayer just after the Lord blesses her with Samuel. After struggling to conceive and then seeing life spring out of her barren womb she reflects on the Lord's greatness in struggle and in gifts; realizing that both are a blessing of the Lord. Then we see Hannah remain true to her promise as she hands over her blessing to the priesthood so that he may be a tool in the Kingdom.

As we approach mother's day and I reflect on my mother and all the mother figures I have been blessed to have in my life, the thing I admire most is the way they have always acknowledged that I belong firstly to the King. I have always known that my mother prayed dangerously for the Lords direction in my life. When that meant living in the security of quaint Versailles, KY or living in the uncertainty of distant and foreign India, she has always ushered me towards His calling; even amidst the risk of the full life God offers. Whether my biological mother or all the other women who have poured into as if I was there own, you have all ushered me to kingdom living rather than the security of worldly standards. This Mother's Day, I am so thankful to be surrounded by so many "Hannahs".

- Praise: We had an inquiry meeting for our winter break trip to Thailand. There are over 20 students interested in going! What a blessing to see the body joining in what Christ is doing
- Prayer: We are seeking the Lord to build the team that will travel to Botswana to work with the deaf this coming fall. After our vision tour last October, I am excited for the clear direction the Lord is giving us and I pray for labors to come along side.
- Praise: The missionary in S.E. Asia just visited the village we stayed in last January. The villagers our eager for our return, as am I. The Lord has left the sweetness of His fragrance. He is preparing the way.
- Prayer: As the unrest begins to settle in Mali, we are seeking the Lord for his timing and his plan for our reentry. Please pray for the elections coming in July and for the boldness of believers.
- Praise: On April 20th we celebrated our volunteers and donors and officially adopted 3 more unreached people groups. I cannot wait to see how God transforms these communities and brings healing to the broken.

The King has risen! Perfect weather and sweet friends made this one of my favorite Easter's to date. Joined by 6 nations, I shared food, my home and the hope of our risen Lord; what a blessing!
