

Hello, from a much warmer than usual Buffalo, NY. We hope all is well! We are finishing a great first school year in Western NY, full of plenty of ups and downs. We learned a ton and got to see God move in amazing ways.

We wanted to bring you up to date with our plans for this summer. Recently, we were asked to help staff what CRU calls a “beach side summer project” in Wildwood, New Jersey, or in church lingo a “short term mission project.” For a month and a half, we will be sharing our faith daily with the beach community and with the hundreds of international students who come to work on the boardwalk. We will also be developing the 60+ students from around the country in spiritual growth and leadership skills.

Honestly, there is no better training we can give students than to have them go on a summer project. We see timid students leave for the summer and come back that are built up in their faith, that have taken on leadership, learned how to share their faith confidently and effectively, and are ready to lead back on their campuses.

Another huge reason we are excited to go to Wildwood is because although our two main male leaders at UB are graduating, our new up and coming male leader, Taylor James, is joining us. He just joined us last semester so Kevin is excited about working with him and preparing Taylor for the new school year.

As excited as we are, we can't do this alone. We need your help in two ways, just like anyone else going on a summer mission trip. First off, we need lots of prayer. Secondly, since summer projects are above and beyond our monthly support, we must raise money to help lead the Wildwood Summer Project. So we need to raise $4000 for the project, which will include food, lodging, travel, and project costs for the month and half for our family of 5. Would you prayerfully consider giving $75, $100, $200 or any other amount by June 1st? We have enclosed a response card and a return envelope for your convenience; you can also give online at www.give.cci.org/give/0561649

Again, thanks so much for all your encouragement over these last couple of years. Your friendship is greatly treasured.

Serving Christ with You,

*Kevin & Jenn Lamb
