

Dear Friends,

I had just finished following up with what seemed to be the last of the “easy” students from our August spiritual interest surveys. Now, it was time for the tougher contacts. Stephen’s card was one of these guys. Stephen is a wiry, brown-haired freshman who is smart and likes to think about and question everything. From the get go, he had endless questions. Honestly, at first I didn’t know if he was just trying to mess with me like some students, who throw out every big Bible question they can think of. While we were wrapping up Stephen said “thanks for taking all this time to answering all these questions, I really am curious and want to know the answers.” This was the beginning of the semester and we have been meeting weekly ever since.

For the first several meetings, Stephen believed that it was good works that would get him to Heaven. So, while he was asking all his questions I made sure to take everything back to Jesus, that He is the only way to be saved. Just about every week I would ask him, “On a scale from 1-10, how sure are you that you are going to heaven?” Finally, last week he said he was a 10 and when I asked why he said, “Because Jesus died for my sins.” I then asked if that is a belief that has changed for him, he said, “Yes, at the beginning of the semester I definitely wouldn’t have said Jesus is the only way to Heaven.” I was so excited to hear that, and believe he is now a Christian! We are continuing to meet and are currently reading through Josh McDowell’s apologetic book “More than a Carpenter” and I am taking him through new believer follow up. And he loves reading his Bible!

It is because of students like Steven that we have committed our lives to sharing the life-changing message of Christ with college students in places that aren’t being reached.

As 2011 comes to a close, would you consider giving a special gift for our ministry so that we can continue this important work of reaching students for the Lord? As you may know, we are expecting the birth of our third child and our health insurance will be increasing. Along with God blessing our family in numbers, He has also allowed us for the first time in 10 years of marriage to buy a home! We are beyond excited to live within 5-10 minutes of the major universities that we work on. So, we are trusting the Lord for $5,000 to cover these expenses.

You have been so gracious over the years, and for that we give thanks to the Lord. We consider it a great privilege to share our prayer needs as well as our financial needs with you. However the Lord may lead you to respond, we are grateful and take comfort in knowing you are standing with us for the gospel with the Truth that only comes through Christ.

Thank you for partnering with us in Christ!!!
