Campus Crusade for Christ at Cal Poly & Cuesta

We are Moving to New York

After literally years of prayer, God has called us to pack up our lives here in San Luis Obispo, CA, and head to Buffalo, NY, to help start a Campus Crusade for Christ ministry there. (Yes we know it is cold and snows a lot there :) It is hard to leave a place that the Lord has graciously allowed us to be a part of which bears so much fruit. We have an amazing team, we have seen hundreds of changed lives, and have been a part of sending dozens and dozens of well-trained missionaries to other colleges all over the USA and all over the world. This year alone Cal Poly is sending 17 students for at least a year to places like East Asia, El Salvador, and the Middle East. But we are so excited to now be sent again!

Why GO? God continues to put the question on our hearts, what if the same thing that is happening in SLO could happen somewhere else? We are at unrest thinking, what about giving other unreached students the same chance to hear about Jesus and grow in their relationship with Him as SLO Crusade students? This has been why Jenn and I have naturally gravitated towards pioneering ministries like Cuesta Community College and Epic (Asian American) ministries. Thanks to the Lord we have been able to see both of those ministries grow from about 4 students to around 100.

So why Buffalo?

- In a 15 mile radius there are 7 colleges and 67,000 students.
- There is a large ethnic and international student population.
- Very little college ministry going on in that area, only 1 Crusade movement with fewer than 20 students.
- Much like Cal Poly we believe it can be a sending ground to that region since Buffalo students are smart, have more time, and don't leave college with much debt.
- The northeast is a very unreached part of the US and becoming more & more like Europe (hardened to the Gospel).
  - We hope to send students to schools like Yale, Brown, Columbia University, Dartmouth, Cornell, and Harvard, which is where much of our government leaders and US presidents have graduated from.
  - We believe Buffalo is a way to reach influential but spiritually hard campuses for Jesus.

On top of Buffalo being very strategic, it will also be a blessing that we will be moving close to Jenn's parents who are not currently believers. We are not only excited for our kids to grow up knowing their grandparents, but we also hope that their involvement will increase Jenn's ability to do ministry.

In addition to moving to NY this summer, we are so excited about our US Staff Conference in Fort Collins, Colorado. We will be gathering with over 5,000 fellow US staff to hear from our leadership. We anticipate that God will broaden our perspective for the world, equip us to be more effective in our ministry roles, and enable us to go forth and bear even more fruit. This required ministry training costs about $2,500 which includes transportation, conference fees, meals and lodging for 10 days. On top of that it is going to cost about $3500 for us to move across the country.

Would you join with us by giving a gift of $100, $200, $300 or some other amount, or even consider increasing your monthly giving? This will help with the ministry God has called us to: reaching lost Buffalo college students for Christ. If you are in a position to help, would you please respond by July 15th?
