December 2014

Dear Friends,

September 16th was the date for my aortic valve replacement. I went into the hospital with optimism, knowing where I am and where I am going. The eight hour surgery was a great success. The surgeon, the hospital staff, and my family are all surprised at my fast recovery. The operation was not as debilitating as I expected. I am now in the process of getting back in the groove of travelling, preaching, and helping churches where I can. Praise the Lord for His faithfulness to answer prayer!

November 2nd was the first date that I was able to be back in the pulpit after my surgery. Below is the speaking schedule I have kept since that time.

Nov 5 – Blackstone Valley Baptist Church, Cumberland, RI

We had a large family gathering in our home for Thanksgiving. It was one of the best weeks of my adult life. What a great joy it was a joy to have both of our children, two of our grandchildren, and three of our great grandchildren present.

I am exercising and getting stronger each day. Looking forward, we have begun to plan for traveling in the spring.

My wife has published the new and improved version of her book "Given to Hospitality." It is jam packed with good ideas for people in ministry, both church staff and missionary personnel. We both want to be a blessing, and live up to God's expectations for us. Your prayers can certainly help us do that.

Hospitality

THE ART OF CARING FOR ONE ANOTHER WHETHER
IT IS IN YOUR HOME OR IN YOUR CHURCH

Because it is Judy's desire to help Christian workers, she has expanded her first book Given to Hospitality Cottage or Mansion with the following chapters:

Developing Lasting Friendships
Implementing Seasonal Ideas
Expanding Women's Ministries
Developing Children's Ministries
Cultivating Missionary Outreach
Planning Weddings, Showers, and Anniversaries
Equipping Church Secretaries
Enhancing the Pastor's Wife Position
Appreciating God's Servants

With all best wishes,
