March 2015

Dear Friends,

In this life it is always more than expected; more expense than expected; more repairs than expected; more snow than expected; more corruption than expected. But I am glad to tell you that looking at life from a sinner's point of view, there are more blessings than expected!

The Lord has allowed me to recover significantly from my surgery of last September. Since then, my wife and I were able to take two weeks and visit my sister in Puerto Rico. She and her husband own coffee farm. Working around the farm was therapeutically good for me. I feel great. We are looking forward to a busy schedule this spring and summer working with several churches promoting missions and missionaries.

We just concluded a Missions Conference Feb 21st – 26th at Landmark Baptist Church, Red Oak, TX. The church committed about $44,000 to the Lord for missions for the next 52 weeks. March 1st I preached in the AM and the PM services at Tulsa Baptist Temple, Tulsa, OK. The weather was terrible and we averaged 41 mph on our drive there from Texas. The Lord was good. The attendance was low but the offering was great. The church promised to give $158,000 to the missions program of the church for the next 52 weeks. We had a great time with Pastor Rocky Harrill, his wife and their church family. It was a real joy to visit with Pastor L. V. Morris while in Oklahoma. He is retired and lives in Broken Arrow. He and his wife have many health problems, but they have consistently been helpful and encouraging to us every time we are able to have an encounter with them.

Next Sunday, March 8th, I will be preaching at Northgate Baptist Church, McAlester, OK. Roy Prince is the pastor. This is in conjunction with their missionary commitment. From there we will travel by car to Midlands Bible Baptist Church in Bellvue, NE. I will participate in the missions conference there with Pastor David Lydick and coordinating with Pastor Tim Ruegg and his Missions conference at the same time. We then fly to Portland, Oregon for several meetings. March 18th - 22nd, we have a missions conference with Valley Bible Baptist Church, Auburn, WA. March 25th—March 29th we will be with Pastor David Brown, Yakima Bible Baptist Church.

March 31—April 1st we will be with Pastor Viril Stalnaker in Vancouver, Washington for a stewardship meeting. On April 2nd we will be at Freedom Baptist Church, Shelton, WA. Bryan Sprenger is the pastor.

After these meetings, we will return to Texas and prepare for a trip going East. We are thankful for the Lord's blessings, your faithful friendship, and and support.
