November 2015

Dear Friends,

After Deputation School in August our calendar has been full. It is our privilege to participate in meetings all across the US as the Lord opens the doors. During this time we have conducted missions conferences in Albany, Oregon and Sioux City, Iowa. In addition we have also preached in Kilgore, Texas; Red Oak, Texas; Vancouver, Washington; Healdton, Oklahoma; Cumberland, Rhode Island; Bellevue, Nebraska; Vernon, Connecticut. In September we attended the Global Independent Baptist Fellowship meeting which was hosted by Bill Marshall and the Bible Baptist Temple of St. Joseph, Missouri. This was a truly great meeting. The hosting was first class, the preaching was Christ honoring and the fellowship was sweet. September 30th through October 2nd, David Brown and I shared the pulpit at the High Plains Baptist Men's retreat which was hosted by The Midlands Bible Baptist Church of Bellevue, Nebraska. On September 30th I preached the funeral of Pastor L. V. Morris. He was my mentor and taught me how to love missionaries. One of the rewarding factors of our ministry is to revisit churches with whom we have had some interaction. We enjoy seeing their growth and prosperity. This was certainly evidenced when we were with Healdton Bible Baptist Church on October 18th. They honored us, along with their current pastor, Kevin Pridemore, with a card signed by many of the members and a generous gift. Currently we are visiting church plants in Maine. On October 23rd I spoke in the chapel service at New England Baptist College which is in Southington, Connecticut. This week I am preaching the very first missions conference of the Lifeway Baptist Church in Jay, Maine. Next week I will preach for Carl Bernard in St. George, Quebec, then I will be privileged to speak at the NE Regional GIBF meeting in St. Hubert, Quebec. It is our desire to be a blessing to the churches. Your support enables us to do that efficiently. Thank you for helping us and praying for us as we travel.

In September we celebrated 49 years of marriage. This picture was taken on our anniversary. To God be the glory!

With all best wishes,
