We hope the spring has been great for you all! Things have been busy as we've ramped up for many of our summer activities.

THE FRESHMAN 15

- Once again, we are offering a seminar called The Freshman 15 geared towards high school seniors and their parents. We know the transition to college can be rough for students, with what the Barna Group now reports as a 65% spiritual drift. Because of that statistic, we've designed a seminar to help students see more success in their college experience.
- Last years' feedback was incredible and we look forward to doing more of the seminars in other locations.
- We've enjoyed connecting with students and parents in what can be a stressful time.

The kids are so grown up

- Additionally, this year we are bringing a discipleship/coaching opportunity to students who can check in with us over the first 3-6 months they go off to campus.
- Please pray that we can expand our scope and impact more families with new seminar dates.

CHURCH MISSIONS TRAINING

-We've had great opportunities over the last couple summers to work with churches to help them enhance and grow their missions programs. This summer that has expanded even more.

With one church in particular, we've started a 6-month process tackling mission trips from start to finish. Looking at mission trips as a key element of developing and discipling folks. Helping them experience life transformation and giving them opportunities to impact their church and the Kingdom.

Pray that this program will be self replicating and the church will see more leaders developed.

Family Update

Kids grow up quick! [See above]. Malia has been doing great since her back surgery and is fully back to normal...and finishing up her driving instruction. We will have a new driver...which will be epic.

Carter finished his requirements for his Tae Kwon Do black belt and is looking to finish his Eagle Scout requirements in the next couple years.

Avery still loves surfing, art and has now been developing her baking skills.

Please pray for our time together this summer, that God would continue to help us parent them well and help their relationship grow with Him and each other.

Many Blessings,

Kyle, Wendy, MALIA
