We're Expecting...

We are excited to announce that we are expecting a baby! Baby Selway is due May 3, 2018. We are thrilled and are praising the Lord for this blessing on the way! Both Mom and Baby are healthy and doing well (although Mom has definitely felt a little under the weather the past few weeks.) Please pray with us for a continued healthy pregnancy, healthy development and growth for the baby, and a healthy Mom.

"I just feel like God isn't able to forgive me for what I've done," Daniel said, tears in his eyes.

Daniel is the roommate of one of my disciples [mentees] Curtis, and had recently begun to show an interest in spiritual things. I [Clay] encouraged Curtis to bring Daniel to meet with us, and quickly the topic of conversation turned to God.

As we sat in the OU student center, I asked Daniel a classic question.

Me with some of the students I lead at Hocking College last week.

"Daniel, if you were to die tonight, on a scale of 0-100%, how sure are you that you'd go to heaven?"

Daniel looked back at me, hesitant. Then he said, quietly.

"I don't know....maybe 50%." Tears welled up in his eyes, and the shame he felt became palpable. "I just feel like God

isn't able to forgive me for what I've done."

In that moment, my heart broke for Daniel. It was like looking at the Prodigal Son - someone who so badly wanted to come home, and be embraced by His father, but was still a distance off, unsure of the reception he might find if he dared.

I assured Daniel that God loved him, and that He sent His Son Jesus to die so that those very sins he was ashamed of could be forgiven. I got to share the very good news of the gospel with Daniel.

That day, Daniel decided to rededicate his life to Christ.. Praise God for his growing faith! We never grow tired of seeing lives changed. Just this fall alone, 38 students have decided to place their faith in Christ at OU, OU-L, OU-S, Rio Grand, Hocking, or Marietta College! Praise God for all that He is doing here. Thank you for giving students like Daniel the opportunity to hear and respond to the gospel.

'Til the Whole World Knows,

Clay + Emily
