

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Derek and Brittany,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Frank and Faye,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Mike and Dennine,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Len and Pam,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Bud and Chris,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Darla,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Della,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Bob and Kathy,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Jeffrey and Lisa,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Aaron and Tonya,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Mike and Hilary,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Daniel and Sadie,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Jim and Carol,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear John and Melinda,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Kurt and Karen,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Jay and Jacqueline,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Friends at KOG Ministries,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Friends at King's Church,

"That's when I started believing that God must exist," Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, "I've learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can't keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens." I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, "Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you," and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, "No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn't really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I'm not much of a religious person, I still felt something." I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God's love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We're trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God's work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you'd like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We're so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Jonathan and Olivia,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Bill,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Marshall and Michelle,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Jeff and Tammy,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Larry and Bev,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Joan,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Amy,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Brian and Norma,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Tim,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Bill and Jan,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Joe and Christy,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Ron and Barb,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Vida,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Dr. and Mrs. Vedder,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Jordan,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Stephen and Sarah,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you, your prayers, and your gifts over the years which have helped us reach Slovenes for Christ. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Name: _____

Yes, I/we would like to invest in your ministry to enable you to continue reaching and equipping Slovenes for Christ in 2024.

☐ I/we will give a special gift of $_____ online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>.

☐ I/we have enclosed a check made payable to Cru.

Prayer Requests: _____
