

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Tim and Ninette,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear John and Rachel,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Winston and Patricia,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Chad and Lisa,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Grammie,

"That's when I started believing that God must exist," Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, "I've learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can't keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens." I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, "Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you," and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, "No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn't really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I'm not much of a religious person, I still felt something." I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God's love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We're trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God's work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you'd like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We're so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Uncle Jeff,

"That's when I started believing that God must exist," Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, "I've learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can't keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens." I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, "Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you," and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, "No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn't really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I'm not much of a religious person, I still felt something." I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God's love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We're trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God's work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you'd like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We're so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Papa B,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Tim and Noelle,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Chris and Andi,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Bill,

"That's when I started believing that God must exist," Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, "I've learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can't keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens." I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, "Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you," and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, "No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn't really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I'm not much of a religious person, I still felt something." I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God's love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We're trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God's work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you'd like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We're so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Aaron and Fran,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear John and Becky,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Mark and Megan,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Jim and Paulette,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Chris and Lee,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Val and Jana,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Craig and Danielle,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Matt and Angela,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Ross and Patti,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Kyle and Carla,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Friends at Church of the Saviour,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Keith and Lynette,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Uncle Gary and Aunt Sue,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Chris and Jacqui,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Aunt Sandy,

"That's when I started believing that God must exist," Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, "I've learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can't keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens." I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, "Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you," and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, "No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn't really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I'm not much of a religious person, I still felt something." I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God's love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We're trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God's work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you'd like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We're so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Uncle Jason and Aunt Julie,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Bob and Valeta,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Meg,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Matt and Elysia,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Friends at Faith Family Church,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Jonathan and Christina,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Pat,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Gordon and Shelly,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Dave and Julie,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Scott and Tina,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear AJ and Michelle,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Uncle Tom and Aunt Vicki,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Bob and Brenda,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Tyler and Shannon,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Ben and Jackie,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Tom and Debbie,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Zac and Beth,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Mike and Sherri,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Jan,

"That's when I started believing that God must exist," Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, "I've learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can't keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens." I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, "Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you," and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, "No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn't really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I'm not much of a religious person, I still felt something." I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God's love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We're trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God's work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you'd like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We're so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear James and Genny,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Adam and Kaleigh,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear J and Cathy,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Pat,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Dan and Carly,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Chris and Marissa,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Harlan and Debbie,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Bruce and Shela,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Billy and Aubrey,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear James,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Nick and Maggie,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Sara,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Fred and Donna,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Ross and Michelle,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Bob and Peg,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Jim and Debbie,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Jon and Andrea,

"That's when I started believing that God must exist," Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, "I've learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can't keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens." I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, "Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you," and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, "No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn't really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I'm not much of a religious person, I still felt something." I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God's love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We're trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God's work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you'd like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We're so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Johnathan and Michelle,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Bill and Lori,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Nick and Ashley,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Jason and Missy,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Jim and Ruth,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Don and Pam,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Jennifer,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Uncle Frank,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Kurt and Angel,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Wayne and Karen,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Nick and Amy,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Adam and Kate,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Bonnie,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear David and Valerie,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Jim and Diane,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Ken and Carol,

"That's when I started believing that God must exist," Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, "I've learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can't keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens." I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, "Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you," and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, "No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn't really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I'm not much of a religious person, I still felt something." I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God's love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We're trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God's work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you'd like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We're so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Alice,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Friends at The Foundation Church,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Uncle Karl and Aunt Kathy,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Paul and Stephanie,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Tom and Judy,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Kristen,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Steve and Tina,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Eric and Alexis,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Jim and Beth,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Kirk,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Luke and Lauren,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Jim and Kim,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Kendra,

"That's when I started believing that God must exist," Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, "I've learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can't keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens." I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, "Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you," and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, "No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn't really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I'm not much of a religious person, I still felt something." I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God's love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We're trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God's work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to "Cru" in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you'd like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We're so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Jordan and Niki Shirkman
Reaching and equipping Slovenes for Jesus

November 24, 2023

Dear Robert and Judy,

“That’s when I started believing that God must exist,” Grega shared with me (Jordan) as he described how he survived an incredibly trying season full of heartbreak and depression. Despite lacking any religious background, Grega appears to be growing more and more open to God.

During one of our conversations, Grega told me, “I’ve learned a lot from the Greek philosophy of Stoicism. But I feel like I can’t keep sacrificing and make it on my own. I need God so I can give him my burdens.” I shared with him what the Bible says in 1 Peter 5:7, “Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you,” and I explained how God is ready and willing to take our sins and burdens from us. At the end of our time together, I asked Grega how I could pray for him and if I could pray with him right there. He agreed and thanked me after I prayed.

A few days later, Grega messaged me and said, “No one has ever prayed for me before like you did, so I didn’t really know what to do. But I felt like someone cares. Although I’m not much of a religious person, I still felt something.” I responded to Grega and told him that what he was feeling was God’s love for him and Jesus coming near to him. I shared with him that the Lord often uses other people in our lives to show us his love.

We consider it a privilege and an honor to join God in his work as he draws people like Grega to himself across Slovenia. We’re trusting the Lord for $10,000 in year-end gifts to keep reaching Slovenes for Christ. Your year-end gift would help us stay fully focused on God’s work in Slovenia by helping cover necessary ministry expenses and increased living costs. Would you consider giving a year-end gift of $1,000, $500, $100 or some other amount to help meet our need? You can give by mailing a check made out to “Cru” in the enclosed envelope along with the response card, or you can do so securely online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>. If you’d like to give a non-cash gift in the form of a tax-deductible stock donation, please reach out by email to Jordan.Shirkman@cru.org.

We thank the Lord for you and your prayers for us as we strive to reach Slovenes for Christ. God is moving in incredible ways across Slovenia. We’re so grateful to seek Jesus together with you. We trust however the Lord leads you to respond, and we pray that you know what a blessing you are to us. May the Lord continue to remind you of his tremendous love, especially this Christmas season.

In Christ,

Jordan + Niki

P.S. Whether you're able to give a year-end gift or not, we'd love to have a prayer request or two from you!

Name: _____

Yes, I/we would like to invest in your ministry to enable you to continue reaching and equipping Slovenes for Christ in 2024.

☐ I/we will give a special gift of $_____ online at <https://give.cru.org/0642948>.

☐ I/we have enclosed a check made payable to Cru.

Prayer Requests: _____
