

Sending Seniors

Every spring it is bittersweet to see our seniors graduate and leave campus. We are excited about what's ahead and how God will use them. We also grieve not having them as part of the AIA movement on campus.

Jenny's discipleship group at Butler is especially dear to us. They dug deep to study God's word, talk through application to their sport and life, and encouraged each other to follow Jesus more closely.

I (Matt) asked a few of her senior girls to share a testimony of how Jenny has impacted them while at Butler. Below are their reflections and encouraging words about Jenny.

Jenny's discipleship group

"Jenny is a role model for me on my faith journey. When I first showed interest in joining the group, she welcomed me with open arms. This drew me toward Christianity and I couldn't wait to learn more from her. She exemplifies what it means to follow Jesus and has shown me how to love fully, forgive whole-heartedly, care for others deeply, and openly live out God's word. I wouldn't have a relationship with God today if it wasn't for Jenny's love and guidance. I will forever be grateful for that!"

"Being in the discipleship group with Jenny has been an amazing experience. We know she cares deeply for each of us. Her knowledge of the Bible overflows in our group times, and helps me grow spiritually. I learn so much each time we meet because of the rich conversations. If we have any questions, she is willing to talk it through and discuss how to live a life that pleases the Lord. Having Jenny as a leader greatly influenced how I read the Bible and live out my faith. It is truly a blessing to have Jenny as a leader! "
