Praises & Prayer:

- Praise for our Fall Retreat. We had smaller numbers but most people were new and there was so much community built that students can't stop hanging out over the weekends!
- Please pray for my safe travel as I fly to California (Nov. 13th-19th) to attend a local leaders training and junior/senior vocational conference. Pray that I will enjoy time spent with my family (Nov. 20th-25th) in Virginia.
- Pray for our locals movement, K Cru. Pray for new students to get involved and for us to know how to best outreach to those born and raised in Hawai'i.

Spotlight on Wehi and Chio

I would love prayer for two new friends I made at our Free BBQ during the first week of school, Wehi and Chio.

Wehi and Chio are about the sweetest girls you'll meet. Wehi is from Maui and Chio is from Texas. They met on the internet and eventually got engaged. They are openly homosexual.

The wonderful thing is that they feel very comfortable in our group of believers. They come to events and even come to our weekly meetings. They're not afraid to ask questions about the Bible and have a hunger for God.

Please pray for me to have opportunities to share more of my faith and life with them. And for them to not feel condemned but loved and accepted.

Tagging for truth

Usually when you see graffiti, you don't think it's benefiting anyone. But our latest outreach, Tag for Truth, definitely turned heads . . . in a good way!

In a completely student-led outreach, our student leaders rallied students in our ministry to create cardboard graffiti walls to set up at the Campus Center on a Fri. afternoon.

The students prayed and planned and God truly blessed the day! He gave us great conversations with students, opportunities to share our faith and a chance to love on our campus by hearing where THEY are coming from. I think it ministered to the campus to not hear Christians just preaching but listening.

We would love prayer as we continue to outreach to the campus with large events like this and smaller events, including our Bible studies, weekly meetings, etc.

One of the major outreaches that I've asked you for prayer with is our locals ministry, Kama'aina Campus Crusade for Christ (K Cru).

We've had this ministry for 2 years and it has changed from being a women's Bible study to 3 Bible studies and a weekly meeting.

Lately, we have been at a crossroads with K Cru. There haven't been many locals coming and it is smaller in size. As staff, our hearts are still in it and moreover, we believe God calling us to create an environment to reach locals through their culture.

Please pray for locals - Christians and non-believers alike to come and for God to give us new ideas in reaching them with the gospel! Mahalo for your prayers for our ministry and my life!

Aloha, Tricia

As hip hop rang from loud speakers, UH students stopped to write down their thoughts on hope, eternal life, and God on our graffiti walls.
