

Nich & Tricia Beebee | February 2016 | Epic Movement  a ministry of CRU

The Beehive Five! We are thrilled to share that we are expecting a baby boy early June!

It's been such a fun journey of praying and now receiving God's blessing to be able to have this third. Naomi and Tosh are anticipating his arrival and we pray every day for "Baby Gummy Bear" as they've coined him. Since our city's medical care is not that reliable and because of Tricia's emergency c-sections in the past, we plan to return back to America around early May to give birth to him in June. I (Tricia) often feel anxious and nervous about flying back so far, leaving our home for the summer and also needing to find a new doctor. Please pray for God to give us the peace only He can give and for Baby Gummy Bear to grow steadily and be delivered smoothly!

Baby Beebee #3 due in June!

Celebrating our lunar new year in Thailand

The Wong's coached our team in Thailand.

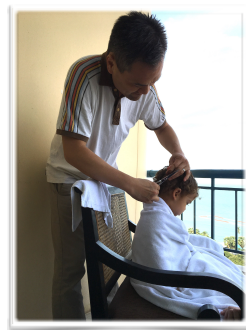

Why Do Missionaries Leave the Field?

Our Thailand Mid-Year Conference was so special because we were able to have two great friends of ours, Brent and Leila Wong, coach us. They served our team by asking questions that really got to the heart of some the issues we have been experiencing. And after living so far away from all family and friends, it was comforting to have good friends who know us well to connect with.

We've heard many times that the main reason missionaries leave the field is because of team relationships and we fully believe it. Although our team gets along well, it constantly takes work because we are family and conflict comes up within our family often. Could you pray for our team to keep engaging well with each other, especially given the fact that our family will need to leave a whole one to two months earlier to have the baby in America. Please pray for unity, bonding and for our ministry and family unit to be trusting in God's strength and not our own.

We're so thankful how well we've been connecting with our team these past 6 months!

We missed the Wongs so much - it was such a treat to be with them! We had this random moment where Uncle Brent gave Tosh his 2nd haircut ever.

Happy Year of the Monkey!
Love,

NICH & Tricia
