Praises & Prayer:

- I'm leaving for Nagoya, Japan, on June 27th after a briefing conference in California. Please pray for our 13 students and staff leaders (including myself) to raise all of our finances. Also, praise God that we found housing recently!
- Pray for a roommate or a new apartment in HI as my current roommate, our intern, Veronica, is moving back to California in August.
- Currently, I am in the middle of raising financial and prayer support in Hawaii. I'm praying for people who are really passionate about the lost and about locals coming to know Christ to join you on my team of supporters.

Officially done with my third year!

This June marks the month that I've been in Hawaii exactly three years! In moving here, I was asked to serve here at least 2 years. But knowing that the past CCC staff that were asked the same thing ended up staying here 17 years, I've always been in it for the long haul!

I've seriously been so amazed at God's working in my ministry and life this particular year. The 2 semesters were like night and day. The first being very difficult, trying and emotional as many of our student leaders stepped down from leadership and we faced building up the ministry from scratch. But during the second semester, my locals study became such a source of life for me as the 5 new girls came faithfully and were eager to learn from me. At the same time, God directed us to other students in the movement who, after much prayer and discussion, will now be leading next year. They are all young and some only involved in our group for less than a year, but the one thing we see in them is a heart for the lost. I believe the Lord has been telling us that He not only wants Hawaii to know Him, He can make that happen! I'm looking forward to seeing him do that in Oahu and the new campuses that He's also provided for us to start CCC at: UH Hilo and Kauai Community College.

Next year's student leaders and us staff praying for our 2 graduates, Blake (in red) and Tony (in white). Blake and Tony served faithfully in reaching locals for Christ with us.

A large part of how I've seen God work is through the larger staff team that He orchestrated together this year. Having our three interns: Larry, Chris and Veronica (below) has been a breath of fresh air. To think, none of them even preferred to come to Hawaii! But God wanted them here and they've become so close to me. The three of them have built into our students in a way Kent and I couldn't do alone while developing Kent and I into better directors, let alone better followers of Christ! Sadly, our team will go back down to three next year : Kent (my co-director), Erin (his wife) and I. I will really miss Larry, Chris and Veronica but I look forward to what else God might have planned for myself, our team and Hawaii!

Aloha, tricia

Please pray for Larry, Veronica and Chris as they leave Hawaii and continue to follow Christ wholeheartedly.

Larry will be interning with CCC for a 2nd year at UC Irvine, Veronica is returning to school to study cancer research and Chris is currently trying to land a job in the music industry.
