

NICH & TRICIA BEEBEE | DECEMBER 2010 | EPIC MOVEMENT & CAMPUS CRUSADE for CHRIST

Dear Friends & Family,

Merry Christmas! We hope this letter finds you braving through the winter. It's been a colder season for Tricia as she's used to 80-degree weather year round, but we're both doing well! We look forward to our trip up to Northern California later this month to see family and spend our first Christmas married!

As you know, this year has been very busy and life changing for us both. We've gotten engaged, moved four times, were married in Oahu and are now settling into our Irvine apartment that we've lived in for less than a month together. We have seen God bless us left and right as we've transitioned into a new life together and here are a few of our memories along the way:

For Nich... "This has been a whirlwind of a year, and there have been moments where I've wondered a loud, "Why am I doing this?" Whether its having a hard conversation with a student, resolving conflict with either my past roommates or Tricia, or trusting God that he will provide the finances for our ministry, I am continually given the same answer. I am a pleaser and seek harmony in my relationships, but God tells me time and time again, that it's connection I must pursue, not harmony. Deep connection in and among the relationships around me — which although contains conflict, it also manifests understanding and true intimacy. So whether it's the uncomfortable conversation I must have with my new bride, or the conflict brewing among our student leaders, I am learning to and encouraging others to lean in and pursue understanding and connection, rather than ignore and seek harmony."

For Tricia... "One of the biggest changes for me this year was trusting God for me to leave Hawaii after serving there for 5+ years. Since we got engaged, it was a major process for me to let go of a place and focus on the future Nich and I had ahead of us. I was scared of letting go and that my life was changing. I'll never forget the kind of increasing peace God gave me throughout the months after deciding to move to California. He calmed me anytime I was feeling stressed about what was ahead and He provided in huge ways. He surrounded me with the most supportive people He drew Nich and I closer to each other through the many changes. He provided for me and raised up SEVEN staff members to serve in Hawaii right after I left. I praise God for the opportunity to serve in Hawaii and to now return back to California to continue reaching Asian-American students with the gospel."

We are so thankful for your partnership in reaching lost students and ultimately the world. This ministry is only possible through your prayerful and financial support, and we are grateful for your sacrificial giving. We've truly needed your prayers in the past, and now as we go into a season of gathering people to come alongside our ministry, we will need your prayers for our future.

Right now, our biggest need is to get back to a place financially where we can serve full-time. Some of our monthly support has dwindled over the past years that we have served, so we are praying for $2000 in additional monthly support. Once we raise this support, we'll be back on campus full-time and as you may guess, we are very eager to do so! As you prepare for the upcoming holiday season would you prayerfully consider either beginning to give or increasing your giving? Also, any special holiday gift will go to our expenses that are not covered since we are not at full-support. We appreciate your consideration, and if you should decide to give please respond using the enclosed slip by Christmas Day if you can.

We are both deeply grateful for all you have done in praying for, giving and just encouraging us along the way! As you pray for us, we would love to pray for you too. Let us know your prayer requests and if you are free to get together as we are both eager to meet each of you faithful supporters. Have a wonderful time celebrating Christmas and the upcoming New Year!

Merry Christmas & Aloha,

NICH & TRICIA
