

Kingdom Dreaming in Orlando...

April 28, 2014

I have news for you! The Lord has recently led me in a new direction. I'm staying in Orlando, but leaving Global Service Network and my supported work in full-time vocational ministry after nearly 14 years! It has been a whirlwind!

Over the years you have GENEROUSLY joined me through prayer and financial gifts. Your investment has made a difference in the lives of countless people, kept me going through joyful and challenging times, and most importantly, brought glory and honor to God. I'm so grateful for you!!

Together, we have encouraged people toward the Lord in Boulder, Myrtle Beach, Vail, Fort Collins, Boston, Orlando, Spain, Russia and numerous places in between. We've seen God touch the lives of many who didn't know Jesus and draw other people still closer as we took steps of faith in all He invited us into. I never would have been able to do this without you... Our partnership has been such a beautiful gift in my life!

Years ago, God made it clear He was leading me to write a book. The project has grown to multiple books and He is now making a way for me to walk in this calling part-time. It's so risky to step out of the ministry I've been accustomed to, but I cannot begin to express my excitement to see the dreams He has put inside of me come to fruition.

You know I LOVE this city, so I'll continue to invest in Orlando! I'm working at a local not-for-profit part-time and will take the rest of my working hours to focus on completing book one this calendar year. I have no clue where God will take this project, but I do have a strong sense that He is bringing me to a wide open pasture of future ministry opportunity in ways I've only dreamed of—what an adventure!!

In all that is to come, I still need your prayers and would love to stay in touch with you. I will send a quarterly email update on all God continues to do in Orlando to those who are interested in receiving it. I'll likely include an update on the book projects from time-to-time, as well.

Please email me at bott.jessica@gmail.com if you'd like me to add you to my quarterly email update list.

If you'd like to make a financial gift to help me as I transition this month, GSN is accepting gifts for me through May 10th.

I am humbled by the way you've chosen to be "in" this ministry with me for all of these years! There aren't words to express the depth of my gratitude. I absolutely welcome and hope for your continued prayers as I follow the Lord into this next season.

I feel free, hopeful, encouraged and absolutely overwhelmed by His goodness to me in leading me here. It's so delightful to know the Lord. He is indeed our Provider and the Giver of GOOD gifts. I look forward to continuing to tell of His goodness so people might know Him and His love for them. THANK YOU for all you've done over these wonderful 14 years!!! I love you and I thank God for you.
