Dear «Greeting»,

Merry Christmas! I sincerely hope this Holiday Season is rich for you. God has been moving in neat ways in the lives of students here in the Northeast including the life of a UMass Dartmouth graduate, Kat.

I always treasure the ways the Lord uses our partnership to reach students with the gospel and equip them to share their faith. Last school year, Kat heard about our first annual Boston Winter Conference. Although she was not involved with our ministry, she decided to come to the event and God moved radically in her life. Not only did Kat hear about God's love for her, but He opened her eyes to see how He could use her in the lives of others.

At the conference, Kat made a decision to give a year of her life in full-time service to God in Mexico City. When I was at the University of Colorado, I had the privilege of working under two dynamic leaders, Steve and Christine Van Diest. This summer, Steve and Christine moved their family to Mexico City to lead a new strategy called Mexico Focus. Kat is on their team! Here's a glimpse of their faith goal:

“One million students. Four hundred universities, institutes, and campuses in one metropolitan area. Where? Mexico City and its surrounding state of Mexico. Imagine a Christ-centered community on every one of these 400 campuses, existing so that each of the one million students in the metropolitan area of Mexico City will know someone who truly follows Jesus.”

Kat has linked arms with these dear friends of mine and continues reaching Mexican students with the Gospel! Recently, she asked if she could join us for the 2007 Boston Winter Conference so she could invite more northeast students to step out in faith, give a year of their lives and join in on what God is accomplishing in Mexico City. I am so thankful for the way God continues to move in the lives of students! It is my heartfelt prayer that God has blessed you in your partnership with me. Together, we have seen many students come to faith in Christ and still others, sent to the world to bring the Gospel to those who have yet to hear.

As my partners in the Great Commission I want to present you with a current need I face. As you might know, I have continued to experience a monthly shortfall in my support and have a current need of $12,350 to close the gap on this deficit. Would you be willing to help me at this time with this special need? If you would consider a special gift, I would be very grateful.

Please don't feel any pressure – God continues to meet my needs. I hope you respond as you feel you want to and are able to. Thank you so much for all your gifts, I do not take them for granted. I greatly appreciate your friendship and your sacrifice on my behalf! Once again, Merry Christmas.

Through Him,

P. S. Please make any checks out to Campus Crusade for Christ. Thank you.
