

CAMPUS CRUSADE FOR CHRIST

Building Spiritual Movements Everywhere

November 23, 2007

Dear «Greeting»,

Merry Christmas! I sincerely hope this Holiday Season is rich for you. God has been moving in neat ways in the lives of students here in the Northeast including the life of a University of Buffalo student, Kim.

I am so grateful for the way the Lord uses our partnership to reach students with the gospel and equip them to share their faith. In October, I had the opportunity to travel to several of our campus locations in upstate New York to connect with staff and students. Upon my arrival in Buffalo, I was able to go on campus at UB with Amy, a new staff woman that I coached this past summer in Vail, Colorado. One of the appointments that she had scheduled that day was with a freshman woman named Kim. In the first few weeks on campus, Kim filled out a spiritual interest survey and indicated that she'd like to know more about having a relationship with God. The week before I met Kim, she placed her trust in Jesus as Amy met with her and explained the Gospel!

Sitting with these two in the student union, we talked about the decision that Kim made to walk with Jesus. She told us that everything was different, at least in the way she looked at life. She said that she knew that Jesus was with her and that she had hope for the future. I loved hearing this firsthand! There truly is nothing like a new believer who has experienced God's love! It's amazing.

During the remainder of our time, we were able to share more about growing in her newfound relationship and learned more about her life. I was impacted by her sincere trust in Christ and desire to know Him. It will be awesome to connect with Amy and hear more about what God does in Kim's life in the months ahead. I am so blessed to participate, with you, in all God is doing here! Thank you for making it possible for students like Kim to hear the good news of Christ!

As my partners in the Great Commission I want to present you with a current need I face. As you might know, God has moved incredibly in the last two months to provide some much needed new monthly support! He is so good!!! In the midst of this, however, I still need to see $14,000 come in by year end to cover the monthly and summer project expense shortfall I have experienced in 2007. Would you be willing to help me at this time with this special need? If you would consider a special gift, I would be very grateful.

Please don't feel any pressure – God continues to meet my needs. I hope you respond as you feel you want to and are able to. Thank you so much for all your gifts, I do not take them for granted and I greatly appreciate your friendship and your sacrifice on my behalf! I look forward to keeping you updated on all He continues to do here in the Northeast. Once again, Merry Christmas.

Through Him,

P. S. Please make any checks out to Campus Crusade for Christ. Thank you.
