Jesus was born and our lives changed forever. . . .

December 6, 2010

Dear

What was the moment like, the moment you understood that God loved you and gave His Son, Jesus for you? Where were you? What happened next?

For me, I was a young child trying to fall asleep on the top bunk in the room my sister and I shared. I remember staring out the window at the stars and thinking about God. A faithful minister had shared the Gospel message at church and I was considering his words. I knew what he said was true and prayed and invited Jesus into my life that night. I was forever changed. What about you—does this stir any sweet memories?

Christmas is a tender reminder of the mercy of God. Jesus clothed Himself in humanity—the greatest act of generosity and humility the world has ever seen. During this season, I'm constantly encouraged knowing there is hope for the world—Jesus has come! We have such an amazing opportunity to share this Good News with others and I love that we continue to do that together in partnership.

Just this week, I heard reports of two women at Louisiana State University making decisions for Christ and another student from East Asia chose to follow Jesus here in Orlando! We've seen movements of spiritual multiplication launched at Walt Disney World as African interns compelled by the love of Christ are starting a group with 30 interested peers! God is on the move!

Your generous partnership makes it possible for me to engage my God-given skills in the mission of winning people to Christ, building them in their faith and sending them out to the world. As you know, I've been trusting God to provide the rest of the financial support I need to report to my new assignment here in Orlando for some six months now. I'm praying that happens soon and here's a way that you can help:

I'm in need of $807 in monthly support right now. I'm trusting God to provide this amount in a lump sum to cover twelve months of ministry expenses. This will enable me to report back to my assignment and provide me with additional time to expand my team of ministry partners. In total, I need $9,684.00 to come in by December 31st to report back to my team immediately. Would you prayerfully consider giving a gift of $300, $500, $1,000 or some other amount to help meet this need? Any amount is a huge blessing and help to me!

I cannot wait to reengage fully and I know God will provide in His time. Thank you for considering this request! You are a wonderful blessing to me and so many others.

Merry Christmas!
