Sept 2019

Perspective is a beautiful tool God uses to show us His plans, His Glory.

Like most trips our plans were altered, this time due to an extreme fuel shortage in Haïti. Resulting in a lot more painting than we planned, a very good thing ...

A handful of Haitian men were paid wages and joyfully worked alongside the team.

JoJo, a seminary student gave his perspective when we were standing outside looking at the completed job. JoJo said, "my mind will be free to study God's word inside a beautiful building, this is a special building, used to teach the things of God".

The team also built the computer lab and hung white boards on the walls. I wish I could insert a video here to show you how excited the students were to see what a white board was.

Another powerful tool to show the students God answers prayers. God used this team to do just that!

Proclaiming HIS glory...

Teaching the Book of Acts

During the preparations for the his trip Pastor Joe and I had been talking about various topics the leaders at the seminary had requested he teach on. We settled on one when a new request was made by the seminary leaders.

They asked if Pastor Joe could teach the first half of Acts and then have another THM team coming the following month teach the second half.

And that is just what he did! Pastor Joe completed a doctorate course on the book of Acts! Anyone surprised???

The students and teachers were so appreciative of Pastor Joe's comprehensive outline, discussion points, quizzes and teaching ability. His outline and notes will be used for many future classes.

His Haitian translator, Pastor Peter, is one of the seminary teachers. He went on and on telling me how much he learned and how much better a teacher he will be.

Making disciples. Equipping leaders.
