"AND HE SAID TO THEM, 'THE HARVEST IS PLENTIFUL, BUT THE LABORERS ARE FEW. THEREFORE PRAY EARNESTLY TO THE LORD OF THE HARVEST TO SEND OUT LABORERS INTO HIS HARVEST.'"

AN OCTOBER UPDATE FROM THE CARSON FAMILY

Paramount High

At Paramount High, Gavin (Cru staff) had a problem: His lone returning leadership student, Matt, had major issues of pride and immaturity. Gavin had been asking God to provide another leader, or to open Matt's eyes to his pride problem. In one of the first Bible study times of the semester, Matt shared that he wanted to better embrace humility. Gavin's prayers were answered!

Matt went on to share his testimony at the Cru meeting and is now constantly engaged in discipleship and evangelism. That same day, Gavin took John (a volunteer and PHS graduate) for his first club meeting. On the way back to the car, John saw many people he knew – security guards, teachers and others. After hearing John and Gavin's vision, the head football coach asked Cru to meet with the football team over the next five Saturdays. After that, John said, "The soccer team is next!" Through John, Cru has gained access to many teachers, clubs, and students on campus!

The Future

This semester, we have seen some of our largest meetings. Garden Grove and Wilson, which both launched this year, had 26 and 31 students respectively at the first meeting! At Fountain Valley, our student team leads over 45 students weekly without the help of staff! Because we weren't expecting so many students, many of our meetings ran out of pizza!

As a team, we are exposing about 300-400 kids per week on 8 schools. While we want to grow what God is doing in these schools, we also desire to continue branching out to all of the high schools in the LA/OC area. Currently, we are working to start a movement (Ambassadors for Hope) at PHS with the help of Saddleback and Emanuel Church. We are also looking into launching at Centennial and Dominguez Hills High School. As we minister, God continues connect us with a multitude of churches and groups that empower us to further reach students!
