

GETAWAY

This past weekend, we had over 120 staff, students, and volunteers at Cal State Northridge for our summer conference, Getaway. At Getaway, students learn more about their faith, how to grow, and how to share it. Every day, the students had the opportunity to hear two amazing messages about how to grow deeper in their faith from dynamic speakers. Through this and many other activities such as recreation, worship with Run51, and chatrooms, many students grew deeper in their faith. At the end, two students from LA accepted Jesus and six more felt prayerfully called in vocational ministry!

PLEASE PRAY FOR...

- Pray for our students as they return back to their normal lives after the amazing experience of Getaway.
- Pray for the two students that accepted Jesus and the other six that felt called into vocational ministry.
- Pray for Brent as he continues to love Jesus, and lead others to Him.
- Prayer for Hunter and Mckayla as they begin to follow Jesus!
- If we can be praying for you, please let us know!

BRENT NAPALAN

In Cru, it is our passionate desire to win students to Jesus, build them in their faith, and then send them out to share the Gospel through initiative evangelism. On Sunday, we drove down to Santa Monica where we would share the Gospel with strangers. Brent, (pictured below), approached me and asked if he could go in my group. "I really don't want to share my faith with anyone and I know that if I go with you, you won't make me." said Brent. I assume that Brent didn't know me as well as he thought he did! As soon as we arrived on the pier, I began to prepare him for sharing his faith. Very confused, Brent asked why I was preparing him if he didn't have to share. I responded, "I was afraid that if I sent you with another group, that they would let you slack off when I know that you'll do well!"

After preparation, I then told Brent that it was his turn to share. We ended up finding Mckayla and Hunter, two freshmen in college, that were open to hear our message. After I started the conversation, Brent boldly voiced the message of the Gospel. At the end, they were both visually shocked that you could have a personal relationship with Jesus and eagerly asked how to begin. On June 26th, Brent lead Mckayla and Hunter in the prayer to receive Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior! Brent left the conversation with his eyes wide, mouth open, and heart amazed. He said, "I didn't think that people would be open to hearing about Jesus. I also didn't realize how amazingly powerful God was either!"

Brent Napalan left Getaway forever changed in part because of your prayerful and financial support. Thank you so much for the continued impact that you have on this ministry! We couldn't do it without you. Thank you, and God bless!
