YEAR IN REVIEW

January 2015

Happy New Years & Happy 10th Anniverary!

Jan 2015 marks the 10th anniversary of Jen and I on staff with Cru! As we say goodbye to 2014, there are a lot of things to be thankful to the Lord for. In both the good and the bad we give thanks to the One whose steadfast love never ceases. And we set our hopes for 2015 (and the next 10 years) on our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Favorite Book 2014:

Ruthless Trust by Brennan Manning

Favorite Movie 2014:

Interstellar - Just love the fact that special relativity was integrated into the plot!

One God moment from 2014:

We were having dinner with some local missionaries from various organizations in Breakthrough and in the middle of dinner I realized how amazing it was to be amount fellow brothers & sisters, in country, dreaming of ways to reach one of the most unreached countries in the world for Christ.

What are you trusting God for 2015:

God's wisdom and leading in the next season of life.

Favorite Book 2014:

Dream Big: The Henrietta Mears Story

One God moment from 2014:

Tanya (name changed) is an exchange student from China.

She was a freshmen last year and was attended an EPIC small group. She really enjoyed the friendships and heard about God's love for the first time.

This year because her small group leader was studying aboard Tanya was not part of EPIC. Instead she attended a local Chinese church. She confessed that she had no interest in the gospel and told God that He would have to give her a miracle for her to believe in Him.

This fall Tanya's grandmother had cancer. Desperate, Tanya began to pray. God answered her prayer and her grandmother had surgery and was returned to good health.

Grateful to the miracle Tanya began to consider giving her life to follow Jesus.

Tanya came to EPIC's Christmas party and I shared the Knowing God Personally booklet with her again and talked through many of her questions i.e. ancestor worship. Tiffany is now looking to get baptized this March at the Chinese church.

We're coming to Albany!! (Jan 15-19, 2015)
