

Cru Atlanta High School

JULY 2018

Spending time with Students

This summer my assignment is MPD (ministry partner development), which means support raising. I decided to go to the coffee shop that we've been going all year long. I like the people that work there and they have breakfast as well as coffee. The coffee shop is just around the corner from The New Schools at Carver. With some students going to summer school and having band practice they would stop by the coffee shop after school or before band practice or after summer school. Daily I would get to spend at least two hours just talking with students and building up my relationship with them.

On A Personal Note:

On Mission With GOD

When I introduce what I do for a living I say high school ministry. I was so proud of what I do for a living. I get to go within the public school of Atlanta and share with students about Jesus Christ. A lot of people would assume that I'm a minister and that I belong to some church in Atlanta This past week I was thinking about how I introduce myself to others and the work that I get to be involved with. I love the fact that I get to be on missions with GOD as a missionary to the youth. Missionarytotheyouth is my personal Instagram account name. My heart is to work with the inner-city youth with GOD. I get that opportunity with the high school ministry of Cru in Atlanta. Now when people ask me what I do. I will say, I am a missionary that does missions with GOD for the high school ministry with Cru. It's long but true.

PRAYER REQUEST

- That I would remember GOD's love for me will never decrease
- A team of believers to join me in the battle of spiritual warfare that I'm dealing with right now
- A community of believers who are on fire/ mission with GOD
- 100% of my support goal complete for August 1st. I'm 36% right now
- Call people on the phone about support (not facebook message, email, text them.)
- Pray GOD puts me on people's hearts that have already heard about giving to my ministry. Waiting to hear back from at least 40 people
- GOD to provide all the money I need for my student loans
- More face to face meetings with people located in Atlanta about MPD (ministry partner development)
- That I have faith GOD will come through and provide like HE always has already
