Dear Friends,

Nov. 1, 2019

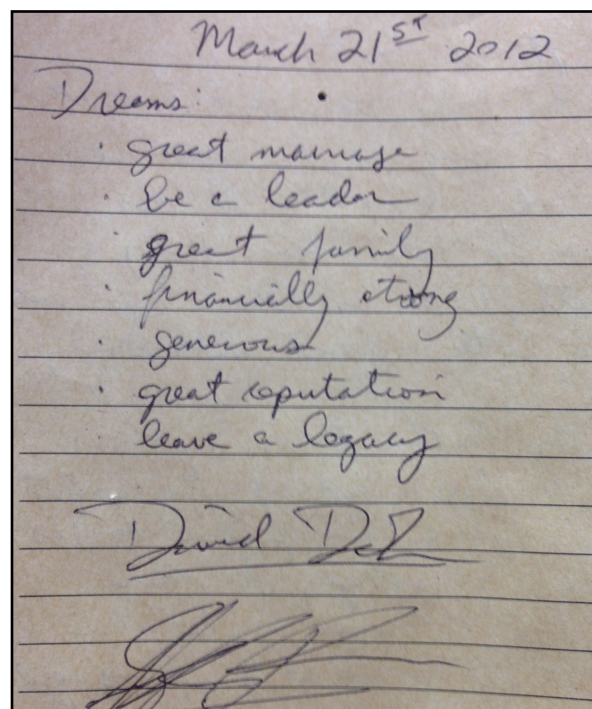

It brings me so much joy to share with you how lives are being transformed by God. We are so grateful we can partner with you to impact lives together.

The person I wish to highlight this month is Steve Rhein. I met Steve while coaching his younger brother Scott. Scott is in the middle of his siblings in the photo at the far left. Scott was blessed to play volleyball at Pepperdine University and later professionally. As I coached Scott I was able to develop a friendship with Steve. I will never forget the day Steve called me and said, "I want to get my life right with God. What steps do I need to take?" I encouraged him and talked with him about the love and power of Jesus Christ. Thankfully, Steve received Christ as his Lord and Savior, got baptized, and we started a great discipleship relationship that has lasted over 7 years. I am grateful for the countless opportunities I have had to meet with him and pray with him. Mandy and I are extremely excited to be attending his wedding to Amanda this Friday, Nov.1, 2019. It has been an honor to walk with Steve and watch him trust God with his dreams and desires. There is truly nothing better than following Jesus and watching what He alone can do!

I share this story because it highlights the discipleship process. Steve definitely had many challenges along the way, but he never gave up. Thankfully, he continued to trust God, and he never turned back to following the ways of this world. His upcoming marriage is an answerer to prayer and a testimony of God's goodness. His fiancé, Amanda, is a precious woman who loves Jesus with all of her heart.

Our ministry is designed to meet people where they are (especially on the volleyball court, lol) and encourage them to follow Jesus wholeheartedly for the rest of their lives. Never underestimate the importance of your role in Uptime Outreach. We are beyond grateful for your faithfulness!

Steve and I put together a prayer sheet and both signed it over seven years ago on March 21, 2012. It is awesome to see how God answers prayer in His perfect timing.

Much love,

Dave & Mandy

God is so good !!
