Dear Friend,

Last night the “Holy Spirit” dance ministry recommenced after the summer break.

As a kid, I never entered the dance world. I loved the water and devoted much of my time and energy to swimming. But, my chance is now. The “Holy Spirit” dance ministry has lost some key members, but Megumi is eager to keep the group going strong.

Last night, some “Holy Spirit” members gathered for the first practice of the fall. Megumi shared her vision for the ministry. It is intended as a place where we can grow closer to God as we worship Him through dance. We also study the Bible and welcome anyone who would like to learn and dance together with us. It doesn’t matter at all (thankfully) how much experience or knowledge someone has.

Megumi is can worship God Him. She’s also to support her in committed school for humility, makes through prayer.

Megumi is a gifted student leader for the dance outreach.

At the dance some of the Dancers are among those who particularly tend to struggle with body image, and in Japan the standard for a perfect figure is pretty extreme. Christians are by no means exempt from this pressure, and neither are missionaries. Our goal is to serve Jesus with dance and to be an example to people who don’t know Him yet. Please pray we can stand out by fully finding our security and identity in Christ alone.

passionate about creating an environment where anyone freely or come to see why she and others believe and love aware that she can’t lead the group all by herself. I hope anyway possible and am praying for at least one more student leader to come alongside her. Megumi attends a dancing and acting. Her talent, combined with her her a great teacher. Please join me in supporting Megumi ministry, we also eat dinner together. As I talked with members yesterday, I realized another need of this group.

Along with “Holy Spirit” many great things are underway this fall and your prayers are appreciated, as always!

In Christ,

Christina
