

Merry Christmas
Jesus is King

Merry Christmas! It feels more like Christmas in Tokyo than usual, because for the first time in 54 years we had snow in November! But of course the opportunity to talk about Jesus' birth is what really makes it Christmas time. Please pray for the chances here in Japan to share of Christ's birth and sacrifice for us. I pray that you are enjoying this season of celebrating the true King, and I have the opportunity to celebrate in America this year! It is a busy time, but I would love if you can join for one of the open houses being held for me to reunite with you all: Thursday, December 22nd from 6 pm (Fullerton) or Friday, December 30th from 1 pm (Fallbrook). Until then!

In Christ,
Christina
