

Merry Christmas from Tokyo

メリークリスマス！

Sending best wishes for abundant joy and blessings from Jesus this Christmas and New Year's! I am truly grateful for another year in Japan, thanks to your loving support and prayers. There is rarely a dull moment, and one recent surprise was learning Japanese calligraphy (書道, shodō) from a student at Gakugei University. Despite my lack of talent, you can see that I have a big smile. Let's look forward to lots of smiles and laughs in 2016!
