February 2009

Dearest Supporters,

The past month has seen a lot of growth for the community on our campuses! I've been feeling the love during this Valentine's month! Meghan, a student from Santa Ana College organized a dinner with Jesus at the Olive Garden on the 14th. We had such a sweet time together celebrating God's goodness!

Rebecca has been cultivating the community at Cal State Fullerton. On the 6th we had a photo scavenger hunt and then met back together for pizza and some quality time.

Many of the students also loved our recent "dinners for 8" evenings. We gathered in staff and students' homes for more intimate community. I had a group over to the house where I'm living and felt so blessed! Cooking and baking are two of my favorite hobbies, and the results were appreciated by all of my guests. God blessed us so much with food, games, and getting to know each other.

Please pray our unity and fellowship will continue this semester! We're looking forward to men's and women's retreats on March 6th-8th. Our speaker on the women's side is a staff member from our regional office, Samantha Li. Our location will be Christ the King Lutheran Church, so many of you can meet our women on Sunday morning! We'll also have a spring break trip March 28th-April 1st. This will give our students the opportunity to serve at a homeless shelter and share their faith at UC Santa Cruz, where there is currently no Campus Crusade for Christ movement. Please pray for rich participation and spiritual growth!

Finally, I have a huge praise to God! This month, a Japanese student named Madoka accepted Christ! I met Madoka through an international student ministry called Bridges. She didn't respond to the gospel at first but agreed to go to a Bridges conference. After learning more in her own language, she decided to accept Christ into her life! I'll be meeting weekly with Madoka to study more about her new faith! Hallelujah!

Sincerely,

Christina
