Brian & Malisa Ellis – Serving with Cru in Boston

Change Boston

It's Saturday night on our Fall Retreat. All the students are grouped up by campus and are sharing some of their take-aways from the retreat. Want to listen to what they said?

Israel stood up and announced, "I want to pour my life into younger students." Then Caroline stood. "I want to grow more in knowing about Jesus."

You can imagine that Malisa, the rest of our staff, and I were so excited to hear our students making significant commitments to take the gospel to heart. We really wanted you to hear some of their comments.

I would like to learn how to share Christ's message with others in a clear and relevant manner as well as opportunities to share it on-campus.

Sarah, Sophomore

I want to make sure God's calling, to be a full time missionary

Cathy, Grad Student

My greatest desire for this year is to see my roommates come to Christ. My next step is to be bold when opportunities come up and share with them and also for the opportunities to come up. So I think what would be most helpful would be prayer.

Caitlyn, Sophomore

I want to have God as my first and foremost priority in my life. I want to learn how to grow closer to Him through His word, and learn to share my faith.

Daniel, Freshman

"Walk towards a life of missions until God closes that door!" I can't stop thinking about how God wants to use me after graduation.

Jocette, Senior

Keep praying and start a prayer movement on Boston University which will snowball into a revival on our campus. Hopefully, every Christian on campus will catch the fire and lift up the name of Jesus!

Beverly, Senior

Prayer Requests

- For each of these students (& 320 others who came to the fall retreat) – that the decisions they made would carry on as they return to campus.
- For the 35 students from Boston who we are bringing to a special weekend to consider serving the Lord with Cru here or overseas.
- For Caitlin (pictured above) as she journeys with several friends.
