Change Boston

Go to www.brianandmalisa.com to watch a 20 minute video of me at our vision dinner leader of prayer, faith, and love. She's leading on campus at BU and also with Cru High School at her Alma Mater just down the street. Cru High School is our ministry to take the gospel to every high school student in the greater Boston area.

In the video on our website, I got to share about Caitlyn, Roosendy, Haru, Alex, Daivon, Lauren, Jordan, Mische, and Gwinnie.

I ended my talk by saying this: "Boston is a city crowded with students and faculty. What better way to bring Courage, Boldness, and Hope to not only Boston, but the Middle East, South Africa, and the 100's of nations represented in our international students studying in Boston than to be part of the movement of bringing the Gospel to each one by living and dwelling amongst them. God is on the move in the Northeast and we want to continue to be part of it."

God is on the move. Thank you for the vital part you play in helping reach Boston for Christ.

Loving our Adventurous Lord,

Brian & Malisa

I love to tell stories of students whose lives have been changed by the Gospel. A few weeks ago, I had a chance to tell 450 of our alumni and ministry partners the stories of a bunch of our students. We put a video of my talk on our website: www.brianandmalisa.com Here's one of the stories I shared:

As a Freshman two years ago, Caitlyn showed up at a lifegroup in her dorm. She was really open from the beginning about being raised in a strong believing family but having a hard time connecting her head and heart with the Gospel.

This theme of disconnect would continue to influence her choices with friends, faith, and relationships throughout her freshman year.

But she took a step of faith to apply for a summer mission trip to the Middle East with CRU called Breakthrough Summer Project. It was on that project last summer that I sat in our team time just days into the project and watched as Caitlyn shared about how the love of Jesus was capturing her heart in a way that it never had.

She came back to campus this fall and begin ministering to her two non-believing roommates. Over this year Caitlyn, has been transformed into a

It's amazing to watch how Caitlyn has embraced the gospel and how she shares it with others around her.
