Ten Freshmen Girls in Just a Matter of Weeks...

As I (Malisa) was waiting for the girls to show up for our weekly small group meant just for freshman girls, I was making several phone calls to women who may or may not have been interested in being part of a small group.

Usually phone calls like that end with a lot of voicemails and, "nope I am not interested." However this day was different. I called Heidi who was with her roommate Christi and they both were so excited to come that afternoon to small group. I then called Kim who was sick but, said she wanted to come the following week and she hasn't missed since then.

So what started as a small, small, group with a few faithful freshman girls has grown to a group of 10 freshman girls in a matter of just two weeks. This past week I was preparing the girls for me to be gone for some small groups since I am just days away from getting married. I waited until after the study was over and asked Joelle, Christi, and Stephanie (Joelle and Stephanie are with me in the picture) if they would consider helping to lead the small group while Brian and I were gone for our wedding. I was expecting to be met with uncertainty and fear but all three girls jumped at the chance to lead the small group. I am so excited for these girls and the impact that they are already having as freshman on the Bentley College campus.

Also, we are getting married this Saturday and we would love your prayers for our upcoming marriage as we begin this new stage of life together.

Loving our Adventurous Lord, Malisa and Brian

Prayer Requests:

- For these 10 Bentley girls to continue to grow and develop in their understanding of who Jesus is and how he desires to direct their lives as college students.
- For us as we get married (October 25).
