Brian & Malisa Ellis - Serving with Cru in Boston

Change Boston

Hey Sam, I just wanted to let you know that I was praying for you today. I'd love to know how it went sharing the gospel.

Sharing the gospel went well, I went through the 2 ways to live booklet Julia, and she seemed to agree with everything it said, and to have prayed a sinners prayer at some point. But I think she may still have difficulty understanding that salvation is not something you can work for. We discussed it again at Valor, and I think she is headed in the right direction.

Magic Moments

My friend Sam is in Navy ROTC. He's now a Junior and for the past couple years I've been encouraging him to reach out to other midshipmen in his ROTC Squad.

Now, two seniors: Alex and Fiona are starting Valor (a Cru military movement) and it was just the push Sam needed to invite his friends to talk about Jesus.

Sam invited four of his classmates to come with him to Valor. And we've been praying for them each week.

A couple weeks ago, Sam and I exchanged this little text message chain. And I thought you would like to see it.

These are the magic moments when students take the risk: to invite, to ask, but then to share about Jesus.

Malisa and I are praying for Julia and others on Sam's ROTC squad. Will you pray? What about you? Who are 2 people we should pray for? Think about:

- Co-workers
- Neighbors
- Friends from college
- Parents of your kids' friends

So great! I'm so excited.

Way to go taking Big Faith steps.

Would you e-mail us at brian.ellis@cru.org with the names of 2 people to pray for? We would love to pray for opportunities for you like Sam.

Loving our Adventurous Lord,

Brian & Malisa

Prayer Requests

- Malisa continues to recover from ACL surgery. She's down to just one crutch, but still has a month or 2 of PT ahead.
- We're planning to head back to the Middle East this summer. Pray for the team to come together.
- For our new Valor group - including Marisa, Fiona, Julia, Will, Alex, Sam, and Brian
