

To Agree Or Not To Agree...That Is The Question.

If you were posed with the opportunity to deliberately stand out, by identifying your belief as a Christ-follower, would you? Would you risk the threat of rejection, isolation, or open mockery in order to stand up for your faith?

Many Rochester area college students did that very thing a month ago! All the campus ministries of Rochester united for the campaign "I Agree

With Josh." This campaign was a week-long endeavor that challenged the Christian students on the campuses to identify with a bold statement (see box left). Everyday during the week of the campaign, Christian students wore bright green t-shirts that said "I agree with Josh." Posters were hung all around the campuses, tables we set up, and the questions from students and professors started surfacing. Matt, a Christian student from RIT, was sitting in class when his professor noticed the infamous green shirt Matt was wearing. The professor singled out Matt, and asked him to Josh says...

*I believe in one true God,
Existing as three in the Father, Son, and Spirit.
Sin separates us from God,
Yet God loves all.
His Son Jesus Christ lived a sinless life,
Died on a cross to pay for our sins,
And rose from the dead, conquering sin and death
To make a relationship with God possible.
Humans cannot earn salvation.
It is a gift of God's grace
Through faith in Christ alone.*

share what the "I Agree With Josh" campaign was all about. Matt boldly rose to his feet and explained exactly why he agreed with Josh. He quoted word for word the beliefs listed in the blue box above, and he was able to share the Gospel with his fellow classmates and his professor! Praise the Lord that through this campaign, and through the boldness of many students willing to stand up for their faith, the saving Gospel of Christ was shared throughout the college campuses of Rochester!

Home Sweet Home...

The month of May brought one big change in our lives! We finally moved into our house in Rochester (note our new address below)! We feel so blessed that the Lord has given us a house to live in and use while we are involved in full-time ministry in Rochester.

Prayer Requests

- For diligence and wisdom in finding the people and churches God has chosen for us to share our ministry with. We have 13% of our total monthly support left to raise, and we are trusting God to faithfully provide the rest!
- Continued prayer for the students and Campus Crusade staff that are a part of summer projects this year—pray for deepened relationships with Christ and each other, boldness in sharing the Gospel, and the people that students and staff will come in contact with who don't know the love and forgiveness of Christ.
