CAMPUS CRUSADE FOR CHRIST

Building Spiritual Movements Everywhere

March/April 2010

We are so excited to introduce to you the newest member of our family, Olivia Lynn Miller! Olivia was born on March 25th, her due date—you can already tell she's like her father, always on time :-)—at 1:15am. She weighed 7 lbs. 13oz., and measured 21 inches long. The labor and delivery went very well, and we thank God for a healthy mommy and baby.

The last three weeks have had their highs and lows. We have been overwhelmed with support and encouragement through gifts and meals over these past few weeks from friends and family, and we are so thankful for everyone's help. We have loved having people over to see Olivia and to help out in many different ways around the house. It has been so nice not having to worry about making dinner for the past 3 weeks! The hard part has been adjusting to an ever changing schedule and lack of sleep. People were not kidding when they said your lives will change drastically when you have a baby. It took me (Nate) about 30 seconds to understand this concept from the time Olivia was born! We appreciate your prayers as we continue to adjust to being parents. Especially for Emily as her role on campus has changed considerably from being on campus everyday to now maybe once or twice a week for an hour or two.

Jesus Without Religion

This year at RIT we decided to do a special Good Friday outreach event. We tossed around a few different ideas and then decided to bring in fellow staff member with Campus Crusade, Rick James. Rick has been on staff for over 20 years, and he is the publisher for CruPress and author of Flesh and Jesus Without Religion. Rick travels around the country talking on college campuses about important issues regarding Jesus. What did Jesus say, what did Jesus do, and what, exactly, was the point? Rick titles his talk after his book Jesus Without Religion.

Our desire was to reach as many college students as possible with this event at RIT so we decided to partner with all of the Christian groups on campus (Inter Varsity, Agape, Baptist Campus Ministry). It was a wonderful opportunity to partner with these great groups for one common purpose, to share the gospel of Jesus Christ. We made it clear to all of the groups that we didn't want this event to be just for all the Christians on campus, but for those who are not followers of Christ. It was awesome to see everyone partner together to invite friends, roommates, classmates, and teammates to Jesus Without Religion. We had nearly 200 college students attend the event and 22 indicated decisions for Christ! Praise God! These past few weeks after the event we have been following up with these new believers to help them grow in their new faith and get plugged in with other Christians on campus. Please pray for each of these new Christians—that they would be rooted and grow deeply in their faith.
