12 decisions for Jesus on the beach this year!

Partying was not the only thing that happened on the beach this spring break. Our annual retreat and mission trip, Destino Break, happened!

The most exciting thing was that one of our own students made a decision to believe in Jesus. She hadn't been a believer and knew she wasn't. But she decided during the event that it was time. Praise the Lord! The second most exciting thing was that 11 other people made decisions for Christ when our students went out and initiated conversations with them on the beach. How cool is that?

I asked the students what they would say if someone asked them why they should go to Destino Break: Here's what a few of them said:

- "Because it's fun and spring break is fun." (And it really was—but read on for the reason we put this event on!)
- "You should go to Destino Break because it's really fun and you get to make new friends and spend time learning about God and how to evangelize and then you get to evangelize on the beach."
- "It's a great opportunity to spiritually grow and get out of your comfort zone to reach other people for Christ."
- And maybe my favorite: "Because God is gonna move in your life."

What a great event. Thanks for your willingness to be a part of this ministry. There were students who grew in their faith and there were people who came to know Jesus because of your partnership with us. God is at work! Let's continue to pray for the light to shine in the darkest of places and for this next generation to take up the banner of Christ and fly it high!
