Daniel speaking at the team meeting for Trinity basketball.

We sent the tennis team to their tournament with some care packages. Be praying for me to be able to continue to minister to them after their season ends. Especially Dani and Tomas both international students.

Andrew, a friend from college, and his son came to visit us. This was during the total eclipse. It was pretty amazing!

Feels like a mini-revival!

Athletes are making decisions for Christ. And it is so cool!

Last month Daniel and I went down to Trinity University and were able to hold a team meeting. You can see Daniel on the left as he led the meeting. The response was incredible.

After speaking we have a response form that the athletes fill out. There are few different ways they can indicate that they would like to connect. All but one or two told us to follow up with them. Then the next part of the process is the follow up. Over this past month Daniel would reach out and connect. I've never seen a response like this. Every week I would get a text saying, "Please be praying. Going to share with ____." Then after the meeting I would get a text like the one above! All told, four basketball players made decisions for Christ!

Thanks for your prayers and support of what is happening down here! We feel like this is the beginning of some cool things at Trinity University!

Grayson just accepted Christ as his savior and Lord! He was a 3 on spiritual interest haha

This is awesome

You got a mini revival going on over there!!!! Amazing! Praise the Lord!!!

You're right! It feels like playing t-ball so it must be from God

UTSA changing things up again!

On the opposite end of the spectrum, the UTSA basketball team is completely changing with a whole new coaching staff and all but one player transferring out. Please be praying that I will connect well with the new coaches and team.

But more than that—would you pray for one player in particular that is leaving in two weeks. I believe God is at work. He is incredibly open to spiritual things. We've been studying Scripture together. He has come to church twice. And I've shared the gospel with him a number of times. On the right you can see his responses to an evangelistic tool called "Perspectives" and, while he isn't there yet, he is so close! Pray that "M" would make a decision for Christ before he leaves for his next university!

This month's video! Thoughts from the eclipse and more about my time with "M" and the mini-revival! And hopefully you'll get to see Elijah and I play "Sweet Prodigal of Mine" at our family camp talent show! Lol. Fun times. Shoot me an email and I'll send you the link if you don't already have it!
