What happened last month?

Arriving from all over the country, a bunch of AIA staff headed to four new campuses in San Antonio. I asked you to pray for open doors and God said “yes” to that prayer! Thank you so much for praying.

I was a bit nervous for how the day would go as we didn’t have many relationships on those campuses. While we didn’t have many before I am amazed at how many we have now! On each of these campuses we met coaches or athletic department staff that were either Christians or open to matters of faith.

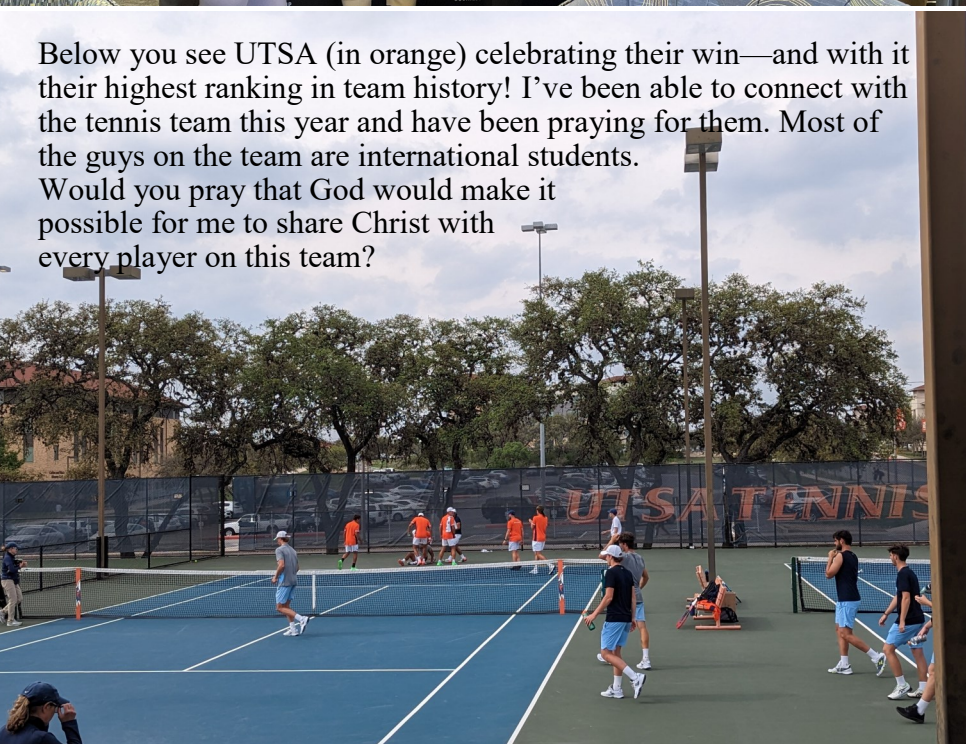

The doors are open so now we are stepping through them. We are trusting God for opportunities, from these new relationships, to see athletes come to know Jesus. I’ve been reaching out to the coaches and offering to meet with their team and then follow up with individuals to help them take the next step in their faith—whether that is toward Jesus for the first time or as part of their Christian growth.

The first of those opportunities is a coach who has invited me to speak to the 70ish members of his track team. Would you pray a couple things:

- 1) That many students would connect with me afterward and hear a clear Gospel presentation.
- 2) That this would be just one of many opportunities that God gives us over the course of this semester.

Here’s a big prayer request: International missions have always been on our heart. This month I (Dan) am headed to Puerto Rico to share Christ on campus in San Juan. We are looking at a three year partnership to build movements of evangelism and discipleship on a few campuses in the area. Would you pray for God’s leading and direction? Would you also pray for open hearts in the students we speak with?

Below you see UTSA (in orange) celebrating their win—and with it their highest ranking in team history! I’ve been able to connect with the tennis team this year and have been praying for them. Most of the guys on the team are international students. Would you pray that God would make it possible for me to share Christ with every player on this team?

Another video is up! “The story behind the story” is at www.dananddeann.com/videos. You’ve got to hear about Mike and Dempsey and their work with us at UTSA. It’s been amazing to see how God is moving! (To be clear...their baby not ours! Lol)

Thank you so much for your prayers and support. It has been a fun and full semester as God opens doors and encourages us. And you are a part of that encouragement!!!
