

HARE TODAY

JEREMY WITH AUNT ROSE, THANKSGIVING DAY, CELEBRATED IN BOGOTA, WITH JEREMY'S 3 SIBLINGS, CESAR, JUAN CARLOS & ELISABETH.

Jeremy finds his biological family.

It all began 35 years ago when God placed this 6.5 lb., 21 day old, bundle of joy into our arms. The day our son, Jeremy, came into our lives is one of our most profound blessings and answers to prayer. Born in Colombia, SA, where we lived and worked for over 25 years, Jeremy was able to live, learn and grow in the country, culture and language of his birth. This not only helped in finding his biological family, but today makes it possible to develop a meaningful relationship with them. We flew to Colombia for Thanksgiving to meet Jeremy's 3 siblings and later visited numerous cousins, aunts and uncles. What a joyous celebration! Jeremy brings his wife Judy and daughters, parents, Macon and Katy, and his biological family together for the first time.
