

ALOHA KE AKUA

“GOD IS LOVE” -- “Back to School”
August 2011

The start of another school year! It's hard to believe that the summer has already come and gone. Japan is pau (“finished” as we say here in Hawai'i) and the new school year is in full swing! It's been so busy that my August edition has almost caught up with my September one! Thanks for bearing with me!

Coming home from Japan, getting to spend a couple weeks reflecting and unwinding was so refreshing! It was a much needed time before we jumped into our week of staff planning and first week of school. The first few weeks of school were extremely busy and tiring. We spent the first full week at UH Manoa tabling everyday just trying to get ourselves out there and to meet new students, especially Freshmen.

That week we were able to generate about 450 contacts and do some major follow-up. God has given us the heart to pursue each of these contacts not just as names on a yellow card but as people He loves and desires to know. In that we've seen 2 people come to know Him!!! We were also able to do the same at our 3 community colleges and the Lord is at work doing His thing!

Our first few weekly meetings have been going well! We've been averaging about 50+ each week from all 4 different campuses. This weekend is our big Fall Getaway!!! Please pray that vision and heart would be clearly communicated and students would jump on board with what God is doing here in Hawai'i!
