Dearest

Hi!! I hope this finds you starting your holiday season off well! I am SOOOO GRATEFUL for your love, support, and friendship!!! ☺

This past year has been pretty crazy! God has been working in amazing ways and it has been a blessing and a privilege to be a part of it! Our primary areas of focus have been on discipleship and evangelism. I love that my job entails getting to meet and pour into young women and see them grow and challenged in their faith. I also love the fact that I get to go on campus and engage in spiritual conversations with students all over. Through these two areas, I am continually challenged in my own spiritual growth and trust in the Lord.

I have also transitioned into the Missional Team Leader role and am currently co-leading our team. It has been such a fun time and I have really enjoyed stepping into this role. It's been such a reminder for me that only through the leading and empowerment of the Holy Spirit can I even do such things. I've also been asked to co-lead a team this summer to East Asia, which I am both excited and nervous about. Again, it brings me back to this idea of trusting God and stepping into something that is so much greater than myself.

Your partnership has enabled me see growth in our ministry and I am eternally grateful! One of the most gratifying signs of growth are the transformed lives in students who are being equipped to follow God's call so He can use them to reach other lost students here in Hawai'i but also to be sent into the world! You are a continual source of joy and encouragement as you pray and give faithfully. Thank You!

As we move into 2013, I need to raise $600 in additional monthly support to continue with regular ministry needs, as well as more training and conferences, now that I have stepped into the team leader role. I also have to raise an additional $5000 in special gifts for this summer in East Asia as well as one time special needs.

May I ask you to specifically pray about partnering with me either in monthly giving and/or giving a special gift of $300, $200, or $100? Thank you for considering this. Online giving is the best way especially to be counted for this year's donations.

Please fill out the commitment card below and use the envelope to send in your gift. If you prefer, you can give on the web at give.cru.org. If giving by check, please make checks payable to "Cru". All donations are tax-deductible.

I would also love to know how to continue praying for you so please, if anything fill out the prayer section so I know how I can be doing that. Your partnership has been so key and I am SOOOOOO thankful for your faithfulness and partnership to reaching lost students for the Kingdom! Whatever you decide, my appreciation for you is unwavering. I am grateful to the Lord for you!
