"God is Love" - Intentionality
March 2023

BUILDING SPIRITUAL MOVEMENTS EVERYWHERE SO THAT EVERYONE KNOWS SOMEONE WHO TRULY FOLLOWS JESUS

I got to take our students broom balling a couple of weeks ago and it was the first time for the majority of them. It was so much fun getting to relive my high school youth group days and bring them into a little friendly competition. I quickly learned that I am not young anymore and broom ball just hits a little differently in your 40s. Thankfully I didn't fall and no one got seriously injured! All jokes aside, it was so much fun getting to run around, laugh, and just play together. We had a couple new students join us and that is always the best part bringing others into who we are. Once again, I am thankful for the relationships that have been formed and are continuing to form with this group of college students!

The few weeks we've been talking about "Intentionality," specifically intentionality with Jesus, with ourselves, and with others. During our Thursday night weekly meetings, I've been taking our students through The Sabbath Practice: Practicing the Way looking more closely at what it means to Stop, Rest, Delight, and Worship. It's been encouraging to see students' desires to slow down, to be intentional, and to find true rest in Christ. Just this past weekend, Cal Poly Pomona was on Spring Break so we rented a giant house in Temecula where most of our students spent a few days just getting away from the hustle of life and school. I got to hang out with them for a couple of days and my heart lit up at their willingness to go deep and to be honest with where we are. Whenever I look at this group, I am so thankful that I inherited such a great group of men and women who are seeking deep intimacy with Jesus and those around them. Please continue to pray for change and as we wrap up this school year and begin to plan and pray for the next, pray that we would seek out ways to bring others into transformation Christ-centered community!
