November 9, 2017

Dear Friends,

With November here I am in the final stages of wrapping up the last of the Leadership Development (LD) work I've been doing for the past 9 years and fully transitioning to my role as the Local Missions Director for New England. God has richly blessed me not only with the great work I've gotten to be a part of, but also because of those with whom I've served. I will miss working with this team of people.

Northeast Leadership Development Team
May 2016

Although there are some sad good-byes, I am smiling at the future excited to see all that God has in store. Just yesterday we were working on creating a new team that would help us branch out to new campus communities. Also, over this last month as Mike, my col-leader, and I have been meeting with the team leaders around New England we are hearing of students sharing the gospel with their friends and students coming to faith in Jesus. What's not to love about that!

You are one of the blessings of my ministry. Do you have any idea how much I appreciate you? What a privilege it is to have you standing with me - praying, encouraging, giving - invested in God's kingdom work! Thank you.

Blessed,
